

Behind the Bottarga menu and experience lies a harmonious blend of Italian, Asian and modern Australian cuisine, characterized by intense flavors and unexpected combinations.

Proudly showcasing the best Australian suppliers and producers, we combine traditional methods with native and wild ingredients to create a menu filled with house-made delights. Every dish is carefully crafted from different elements, designed to be mixed and savored together.

What you see on the plate is only half the story. As you dine, our open-view kitchen invites you to experience the culinary magic firsthand, allowing you to hear the sizzle, feel the aromas, and smell the flavors as they unfold.

We thank those who honor our offering and we are grateful to all those who, in the interest of Bottarga, are broad with their opinions and advice.
